THE MUNICIPALITY OF SORØE

HAMBURG

The historic and green heart of central Zealand, Soroe has an atmosphere unlike any other town in the region.

THE MUNICIPALITY OF SOROE

GROW YOUR BUSINESS IN THE GREEN HEART OF ZEALAND

Surrounded by lakes and woodlands, the natural beauty of the town of Soroe is striking and inspires an active and recreational lifestyle that is enjoyed by citizens of all ages.

The unique historic atmosphere, emanating largely from Academia Sorana – one of the finest boarding schools in Denmark, dating back to the 16th century – and, alongside the medieval Cathedral, provides a sense of timeless connectedness.

Adding this to a modern and flexible business service and you have a formula for successful relocation in unique surroundings, offering an attractive base for businesses and employees alike.

SOROE BUSINESS – WE ARE HERE FOR YOU

We want to be the community of knowledge, service and support.

Our vision says it all - highly skilled employees, an excellent location from which to serve Northern European markets, and a business department ready to provide any help that you and your company might need.

The municipal business strategy, formulated by the Business Development Council, focuses on agricultural and health cluster development, entrepreneurship and an overall high quality of business service.

Business Soroe, operating from the city hall, is your partner in making your relocation a success. A strong network and an open-minded dialogue with local businesses is our key to understanding the needs of companies.

EXCELLENT LOCATION

From Soroe, you can get anywhere, and quickly. Copenhagen, Odense, Sweden and Germany are all accessible by motorway, as well as by rail, with trains every 30 minutes to Copenhagen and Odense. The central location, highly developed infrastructure and affordable housing make Soroe an excellent base for anyone looking to combine a stimulating professional life with the laid-back atmosphere of a small town.

SAFE AND FUN

A safe, low-crime community, within easy reach of the best hospitals in the region, makes the Municipality of Soroe an attractive location for seniors as well as families. An extremely active community, offering a wealth of leisure activities and things to get involved in, adds to the fun of everyday life.

Business Soroe will be happy to assist companies interested in establishing in the area.
